Bob Prince

Bob Prince has been in code enforcement and a member of FLBOA for 15 years. Bob is currently the Building Inspector/Fire Marshall for the Town of Parma. Bob started construction work in high school working for his uncle's construction business. There were some breaks for college and travel. He started his own business and enjoyed that endeavor for 20 years before being hired with the Town of Greece.

Bob is the proud father of two daughters and two granddaughters.

His hobbies include hiking, biking, and camping, kayaking, snowshoeing, gardening - Pretty much anything outdoors. Bob still likes to swing a hammer and pound nails occasionally.

Other Achievements: Currently Bob is the Chairman of the FLBOA Board of Directors and is a member of the Board of Assessment for the Town of Parma.
